NCAA Tournament Success

With 10 appearances in the past 13 seasons, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. Since 1998, the Utes have become a fixture in the tournament and have developed a rich history of success in that short span.

"Every year we play a nationally-competitive schedule to prepare for the NCAA Tournament," head coach Beth Launiere says. "Our goal is to continue to go to the NCAA Tournament year-in and year-out."

The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament 10 times (1998-2006, 2008) and advanced to the second round eight times. The 2001 and 2008 teams both went 2-1 in the tournament, concluding each season with a loss in the Sweet 16. The Utes lost to eventual national champion Stanford to conclude the 2001 campaign, while the 2008 team saw its season come to a close at No. 5 Washington.

The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

The team's regional semifinal appearance in 2001 was the first time in Utah volleyball history that a team had advanced to regionals. The Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds on Crimson Court. Utah fell to host Stanford, 3-1, in Palo Alto in the regional.

In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in 2003 in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory. The following night, the Utes fell in three sets to host Washington.

Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid.

Lori Baird (2005-08) • Third Team (2008)

She became the 10th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club and finished her career with the Utes seventh in school history with 1,236 career kills. Baird led the team with 3.05 kills per set, which finished fourth in the MWC. Baird finished her career second in school history with 584 career block assists and third with 631 career total blocks. Baird posted seven career double-doubles, three in 2008, including a school-record 16 block assists to go along with 11 digs in a 3-0 win at BYU.

Emillie Toone (2004-08) • Honorable Mention (2006, 2008)

Toone earned AVCA Honorable Mention recognition for the second time in her career after ending her career as the most efficient attacker in school history (.345). Toone led the MWC and was 12th in the nation with a school-record .393 hitting percentage, breaking her own record of .369 (set in 2006). She also tied or led Utah in kills six times during 2008. On the block, Toone finished her Ute career second in school history in total blocks (635) and third in block assists (583). Toone finished 2008 third in the conference and 19th nationally with 1.37 blocks per set, while leading or tying for the team lead in blocking during 13 matches this season.

Crimson Court

Top-notch volleyball, a driving MUSS Student Section and band team with a raucous crowd to make Utah's Crimson Court one of the finest volleyball-only facilities in the nation.

One of the most intimidating competition venues in the country since 2000, Utah has racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span.

The court was built prior ot the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Not only has the fan-friendly Crimson Court been a launching pad for the Utes' 10 NCAA Tournament appearances, but Crimson Court has also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

2012 Season Outlook: Getting Down to Business

After introductory season in 2011, Utes look forward to second year in Pac-12 Conference.

It is often said that student-athletes make the most improvement from their freshman to sophomore years. Can this concept carry over to an entire team? The 2012 edition of the University of Utah volleyball will put this theory to the test.

"There's no doubt that there's a higher level of comfort knowing what we know about the Pac-12 conference," Utah head coach Beth Launiere said. "Everything was so new last year and we just didn't know what to expect. I feel that going into this season, we have the lay of the land at least. Last year was exciting. Everything was new and we did very well considering that. This season, we're getting down to business."

Launiere and the Utes will be armed with a talented group of returners who got their first taste of Pac-12 volleyball in 2011.

"We started 2.5 freshman and three sophomores last year and as that core goes through the next couple of years, they're going to build a significant amount of experience. That group has been starting its whole career so we're excited for the next two years. We have a core of very athletic players. We have good size and they're getting good experience under their belt while they're young."

After a season of competing in the premier volleyball conference in the nation, expectations have risen within the Utah program.

"This season isn't about learning or the excitement of the newness anymore. We made a mark last year, the Pac-12 realized we were going to be competitive every night and we picked up some good wins. This program has a lot of history and tradition and we continued that into the Pac-12. We were competitive most nights and other teams in the Pac-12 felt that way. This year, it's a different ball game."

So what exactly did the Utes have to adjust to last year in their new league?

"[The biggest adjustment] definitely was getting used to the mental wear every night. We absolutely had to bring it mentally every night. It's so cliché, but it's so true. We have to be mentally prepared every night. That changed the way we do things, too. It changed the way we prepare. During the week of practice, it was important that we competed, but at the same time didn't wear ourselves out mentally so we could be ready every Friday and Saturday night. By the second round of Pac-12 play, we started figuring things out and that's why we got better." different."

Middle Blocker

A pillar of success throughout Utah's winning tradition has been tenacious defense at the net, led by Ute middle blockers. The tradition continues in 2011 as the Utes finished the season fifth in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 3.00 blocks per set and turned in a 2.90 average against league foes.

Despite the loss of a key starter, Launiere feels confident that Utah's stellar blocking at the net will continue in 2012.

"We lost Danielle Killpack here, but this is an area where if we had some inexperience, this would be it, in some respects," Launiere said. "Junior Erin Redd comes in with a tremendous amount of experience and sophomore Bailey Bateman and freshman Eden Frazier come in with not much at all. It's one of the areas we'll have to attend to early on and make sure Bailey and Eden are up to speed. We can absolutely have that same level of success this season with the personnel that we have. We have good size, blocking mechanics and eye-work."

The Utes are not satisfied with strictly being defensive threats at the net, either, as offense took over the main focus during spring practice.

"We didn't work on blocking very much at all [this offseason], because we made such strides in that area the year before that," Launiere said. "We have all of our personnel back who block so that area will hold strong. We worked on our offense a lot more this spring. Blocking is something that we're good at and certainly don't want to lose, but we want to keep being good as we keep getting better in other areas."

Outside Hitter

Junior Morgan Odale and sophomore Chelsey Schofield return to anchor the Ute attack. The duo started all 31 matches last season and both were Utah's top options last year, combining for 5.80 kills per set, which was 48% of the team's kills. Odale hasn't missed a start in two seasons and already has 685 career kills. Schofield earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention last season after leading the team last season with 2.95 kills per set and finishing third on the squad with 2.63 digs per set.

"We'll have Odale and Schofield leading our offense. Obviously, Morgan and Chelsey played all of last year and very seldom came off the court," Launiere said. "Both have a tremendous amount of experience. I feel really good about this position, not the quality of depth that I would like, but the quality and experience levels are high."

Despite putting up huge numbers, the duo continues to work with the Ute coaching staff to add new facets to their games.

"We worked with Chelsey and Morgan a lot on hitting out of the back row this spring," Launiere said. "We talked about speeding up our offense. We sped up our back-row attacks. They're hitting out of the back row very well and that's going to be a big part of our offense this year."

Incoming freshman Tjaša Kotnik will provide a third option for the Utes on the attack throughout the season. Kotnik comes to Utah from Slovenia, where she competed for the national team on the several different levels.

"Tjaša is 6-3 and a tremendous athlete, who's been playing volleyball for a long time," Launiere said. "She was on the U-14, U-16 and U-18 Slovenian National teams and is just a really nice athlete, who jumps well, is dynamic. Obviously any freshman, especially an international student, you're not always sure what they're about so it will take some time to figure her game out in detail. She has a lot of great athletic ability along with experience so we're excited about her."

The Utes also signed junior transfer and American Fork, Utah native Makenzie Moea'i, who played the first two seasons of her collegiate career at UNLV. She led all Rebel attackers with 330 kills in 2011 for a team-best 2.92 kills per set. Moea'i owned a .214 hitting efficiency and contributed 96 digs, 44 blocks (nine solo). Moea'i will have to watch from the bench in 2012 due to NCAA transfer rules.

"It's unfortunate that Makenzie has to sit out a year due to the transfer," Launiere said. "We'll be a little thin on depth, but we'll be okay."

Right-side HItter

The trend of talented yet experience youth continues into Utah's group of right-side hitters, where sophomores Shelby Dalton and Alli Spurrier.

"We have a nice group of right-sides," Launiere said. "They were both freshmen last year and obviously Shelby got a lot of experience, but Alli got some good playing time at different points throughout the season as well when we were going in and out of the 6-2. She got some good time in there. I remember Alli playing against Cal and going in there and getting some big blocks in set three against AVCA Second-Team All-American Tara Murray. She got some good experience. I feel good about that position."

Dalton refused to rest on her laurels during an offseason that saw her compete with the U.S. Women's National A2 Team over the summer and continued to improve every aspect of her game.

"Shelby had a really big offseason," Launiere said. "She came in over her head for the first month of last season and she figured it out then obviously became a full-time starter for us and did really well. She made significant gains this spring, which isn't surprising, because she had a lot of little things to work on. That was huge."

Setter

Senior McKenzie Odale dished out a career single-season high 506 assists last season and returns for her final season as the team leader and the coordinator of the Utah offense.

"There's no question that this is a big year for McKenzie," Launiere said. "This is a great opportunity for her. She took her role as the only senior and the leader of this team very seriously this spring. She learned a lot about leadership. She's grown and matured incredibly through her time here. She's ready to lead this team. I have no doubt about it."

Freshmen Gigi Cresto and Kendall Cygan will provide depth during their first season with the Utes.

Libero/Defensive Specialist

The defensive spots in Utah's back row will be filled by junior Nikki Sim or sophomore Lea Adolph. Who exactly fills which position will be determined during fall camp.

"I opened the door for Nikki and Lea to compete this spring for the libero position and they competed hard," Launiere said. "It's open heading into fall camp and they're both really driven to play, whether it's in the libero position or the defensive specialist position."

Sim had 405 digs last season from her libero position in the Ute back row, good for the seventh-highest single-season total in school history. She was 10th in the Pac-12's statistics with 3.89 digs per set last season and 3.65 digs per set in league matches.

Adolph popped up a career-high 15 digs against Eastern Michigan last season. She made two starts at libero, against No. 3 Stanford and at Arizona. She helped fuel a memorable win at then-No. 16 Oregon by serving three consecutive aces in the fifth and decisive set during the win over the Ducks.

"Our defensive players gained a lot of experience, compared to a year ago. It was an area that we were very inexperienced in last season. Nikki and Lea both played a significant amount of time so we're going into this season much more experienced in that area."

Freshmen Amanda Wasko and Liz Mata will be counted on to provide depth behind Sim and Adolph.

Schedule

Thirteen of Utah's 33 regular-season matches this season will be against teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2011, including reigning national champion UCLA and Final Four participant USC.

Will the Utes feel more comfortable as they head into their 'sophomore' season in what may be the toughest conference in the nation?

"Yes, we will feel a lot more comfortable," Launiere said. "In so many areas with travel, the venues, opposing coaches and their styles. We will also know the opposing players that much more so nothing will be new for us any more in every aspect. There's no reason why we can't be better.

"[Breaking into the top half of the league] is our goal and I absolutely think we can achieve it. It's a big challenge. Seven teams from the Pac-12 went to the NCAA Tournament last season, so even getting into the top seven will help us reach our goal of reaching the NCAA Tournament."

Beth Launiere
Head Coach
23rd Season
436-258, .625

Now that some of the novelty has worn off from joining what many consider the finest collegiate volleyball conference in the country, Utah head coach Beth Launiere and the University of Utah volleyball team now have their sights set on moving up the ranks during their second season in the Pac-12 Conference.

Launiere (436-258, .628) is entering her 23rd year at the helm after taking over in 1990, when she looked to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In 22 years, Launiere has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power. The Utes have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 10 times, won six Mountain West Conference titles (regular season and tournament combined) and have recorded 13, 20-win seasons.

Launiere has earned plenty of recognition as the leader of the Utes, she was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year three times (2001, `06, `08) and the MWC Coach of the Year (2004, `06, `08) of the Year three times.

Launiere's ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided seven Utes to All-America honors while 11 have garnered all-region accolades. The 2011 freshman class was ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com, while the 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best by Volleyball Magazine.

Launiere's accomplishments earned her the opportunity to coach for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia last July and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for five years.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reached new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 10 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament eight times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001 and 2008. In 2001, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a game against the Cardinal during the tournament. In 2008, the Utes swept Furman and host Clemson in the first two rounds before being defeated by Washington in Seattle.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

In addition to seven AVCA All-Americans, Chelsey Schofield earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition in 2011, while 17 of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 11 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic Development programs. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including current players right-side hitter Shelby Dalton, Morgan Odale, along with Turner, Salvo, Toone, Baird, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson, Danielle Killpack, Abby Simmons and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

Brian Doyon
Assistant Coach
Fourth Season

Brian Doyon will be in his fourth season as a member of the Utah volleyball coaching staff. Serving as Utah's recruiting coordinator and working with the Ute blockers, Doyon brings a vast amount of experience in many different aspects of the game and has helped Utah maintain its position as one of the top programs in the Pac-12 Conference and the nation.

While instructing Utah's blockers, Doyon guided the Utes to one of the most successful years on the block in recent memory in 2011. Utah was fifth in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 3.00 blocks per set and turned in 2.90 blocks per set in league competition. Doyon mentored current middle blocker Erin Redd to a 16th-place finish in the NCAA's individual blocking rankings, as well as third place in the Pac-12. Also last season, Danielle Killpack was 28th in the country and fourth in the conference.

On the recruiting front, Doyon was instrumental in bringing in the 2011 freshman class that ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com.

Doyon was the assistant director of Terry Pettit's Summit of Extraordinary Coaching, where he assisted in developing and hosting a seminar for college coaches. Doyon also assisted Colorado State's Elite Skills, Team, and Collegiate Prep camps.

Doyon also served a two-year term as the head coach of the Avalanche Volleyball Club in Edwards, Colo., from 2002 to 2004. He also was an evaluator at the USA High Performance Tryout in Denver, Colo., in 2005.

Doyon's collegiate playing career was with the Syracuse club volleyball team in 1993 and 1994, where he was a two-year starting middle blocker. He graduated from SUNY Environmental Science and Forestry in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in Landscape Architecture and began his coaching career as an assistant at Fayetteville Manlius High School in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993.

JJ Riley
Assistant Coach
First Season

JJ Riley joins the Utah staff for his first season as an assistant coach with the Ute women's program. He joined the Ute coaching staff in January of 2012 in preparation of Utah's second season in the Pac-12 Conference.

Riley brings an extensive and diverse volleyball background to the Utah coaching staff on both the collegiate and club levels as well as on both the men's and women's side of the game. He was in his second season as an assistant coach with the USC men's volleyball team and has coached for the men's and women's teams at Pepperdine. Riley has coached in two NCAA Final Fours between the two programs, including last season with the Trojans, and he also played in the NCAA national championship match as a setter for the Pepperdine Waves.

He has also been successful on the club level, as he coached the Southern California Volleyball Club 16 boy's team and led the squad to a bronze medal at the 2011 Junior Olympics.

Before USC, Riley was an assistant with the Pepperdine women's team for four years (2000-03) and helped the Waves reach the NCAA Regional Final for the first time in school history.

Riley also served as an assistant coach for two seasons with the Pepperdine men's team in 2000 and 2010. In 2000, he helped the Waves advance to the NCAA Final Four, while the 2010 team finished among the nation's leaders in four different statistical categories: third in hitting percentage and assists, fifth in kills-per-set average and sixth in block average. Riley mentored First-Team All-American setter Kasey Crider, who led the nation in assists that season.

Karolina Bartkowiak
Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season

One of the most decorated players in Utah volleyball history, Karolina Bartkowiak will join the Ute coaching staff as a volunteer assistant for the 2012 season.

During her playing career at Utah from 2007 through 2010, Bartkowiak established herself as one of the top players in the Mountain West Conference in 2009. She was a three-time All-MWC selection as well as a two-time member of the AVCA's West Region Honorable Mention Team. She finished her career ninth in school history with 1,115 career kills and became the 12th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club on Oct. 29, 2010 against BYU.

Daniel Jones
Director of Operations
Third Season

Daniel Jones will be in his third season on the Ute staff and his first as the Director of Volleyball Operations. During the 2010 and 2011 seasons, Jones served as the program's Video and Statistics Coordinator. In May of 2011, Jones served as a second assistant coach and technical adviser for the USA A2 Development Program at the USA Open Nationals in Dallas.

Prior to his appointment at Utah, Jones volunteered at Utah Valley during the 2009 season.

Jones coached Gold Medal Squared Camps across the country during the summer months for four years and spent the winters playing and coaching in London, England.

Jones graduated from the University of Canterbury with a Bachelor of Education degree, specializing in Physical Education. He married his wife, Lacee (Koeliker), last summer. She is an assistant coach at Utah Valley University.

2011 Review

The University of Utah volleyball team concluded its 2011 season, its first year in the Pac-12 Conference.

Utah was 11-20 overall this season and took ninth place with 6-16 against Pac-12 opponents.

Perhaps Utah's biggest win of the season came on Oct. 28 in Euguene, Ore., as sophomore middle blocker Erin Redd (Spanish Fork, Utah) turned in a career-high 12 blocks to lead Utah to a 3-2 Friday win at No. 16 Oregon (13-25, 25-22, 28-26, 17-25, 15-8) at Matthew Knight Arena.

Utah outblocked Oregon, 18.0 to 6.0, which was a season-high for blocks for the Utes this season.

The Utes picked up their first-ever Pac-12 victory at Colorado on Sept. 13 by holding a .275 to .161 advantage in team hitting over the Buffaloes as well as a 9-4 edge in team blocks as Utah swept Colorado (25-22, 25-21, 25-21) in its first-ever Pac-12 match at the Coors Events Center.

Utah's first-ever Pac-12 home win came against Arizona State on Oct. 14 in a 3-0 win (25-23, 25-15, 25-20) over the Sun Devils.

In non-conference play, three different Utes had at least 14 kills to lead Utah to a 3-1 win on Sept. 3 at Yale (25-19, 28-30, 25-20, 25-22) in the championship match of the Yale Invitational in the John Lee Amphitheater in New Haven, Conn.

Utah hit .341 on the attack, its second .300-plus performance of the tournament, and also turned in nine team blocks.

Sophomore outside hitter Morgan Odale (Star, Idaho) was named Tournament Co-Most Valuable Player after pounding a career-high 23 kills on 53 attempts with only four errors for a .358 efficiency. She then secured her first double-double performance of the season with a career-high-tying 18 digs.

Freshman hitter Chelsey Schofield (Provo, Utah) joined Odale on the all-tournament roster after registering 17 kills on 59 swings and only committing three errors for a .237 efficiency.

Redd was the third Ute named to the all-tournament squad. She totaled 14 kills with 25 attempts and three miscues for a match-high .440 hitting percentage. Redd also claimed match-high honors with four blocks to lead Utah's front row.

Setter McKenzie Odale (Star, Idaho) toppled her previous career high with 51 assists to go along with 13 digs for her second double-double on the year and the fourth of her career. If that wasn't enough, her four blocks was also a career-high mark.

Blistering on the Block: Utah finished 2011 fifth in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 3.00 blocks per set. The Utes turned in 2.90 blocks per set in league competition. Colorado outblocked Utah in the season finale, 5-4. This was Utah's first victory in a match where it was outblocked this season.

Schofield Earns Pac-12 Recognition: Chelsey Schofield (Provo, Utah) earned All-Pac-12 Conference Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition, the league office announced Nov. 29.

Schofield turned in a team-high 11 kills and also had 11 digs for her eighth career double-double in Wednesday's sweep of Colorado.

Schofield led the team the team this season with 2.95 kills per set, the second consecutive year in which a freshman has led Utah in kills. Defensively, she was third on the squad with 2.63 digs per set.

Morgan on the Attack: Morgan Odale put together an impressive season on the attack for the Utes, finishing second on the squad with 2.85 kills and 2.80 digs per set. Odale leads the team and is 10th in the Pac-12 with 0.23 service aces per set. She is tied for fifth in the Pac-12's league-only statistics with 0.23 service aces per set in league matches.

Killpack Closes Strong: Danielle Killpack (Idaho Falls, Idaho) finished 28th in the NCAA and fourth in the Pac-12 with 1.32 blocks per set. She was third in the conference-only stats with 1.35 blocks per set.

Killpack ended her career sixth in school history with 380 block assists. She is the ninth member of Utah's 400-block club and is ninth in school history with 408 total blocks over her career.

Block of Redd: Redd ended her sophomore season 16th in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 1.37 blocks per set. Redd has posted 100 or more blocks in each of her first two seasons as a Ute. She already has 258 career blocks (18 solo, 240 block assists.

Dalton Does It All: Outside hitter Shelby Dalton (Moab, Utah) was effective on both the attack and block during her freshman campaign.

Dalton averaged 1.07 blocks per set in 22 league matches this season. In the overall stats, she finished third on the squad with a .213 hitting percentage on the attack with 1.77 kills per set as well as 0.91 blocks.

Always Be Closing: After taking the first two in the season finale against the Buffaloes (25-23, 25-21), the Utes finished the season 8-0 when winning the first two sets of a match in 2011.
